WHO WE ARE
Who is providing this notice?	Seacoast Bank means Seacoast National Bank and Seacoast Banking Corporation of Florida.
WHAT WE DO
How does Seacoast Bank protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does Seacoast Bank collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you: • Open an account • Apply for a loan • Use your credit or debit card • Make deposits or withdrawals from your account • Give us your contact information We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only: • Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness • Affiliates from using your information to market to you • Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.
What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?	Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
DEFINITIONS
Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. Our affiliates include: • Nature Coast Insurance • Various financial companies with or without the Seacoast name. • Various property service companies with or without the Seacoast name.
Nonaffiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. • Seacoast Bank does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.
Joint Marketing	A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. • Our joint marketing partners include our credit card partner, securities broker dealer, leasing, and service providers.
OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION
State Law: We follow state law if state law provides you with additional privacy protections. For example, we automatically treat customers with a Vermont mailing address as having limited our sharing with affiliates and nonaffiliates, unless you give us authorization for such sharing. Important Notice about Credit Reporting: We may report information about your account(s) to credit bureaus and/or consumer reporting agencies. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account(s) may be reflected in your credit report and/or consumer report.

Error Resolution Notice

If you think your statement or receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt, we must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

1. Tell us your name and account number (if any),
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will re-credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation,

Preauthorized Transfers:

If you have arranged to have a direct deposit or other preauthorized electronic fund transfers made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may telephone us at the Customer Service Center number listed below to find out whether the transfer was made as scheduled.

Nonsufficient funds (NSF) fees:

If an item drafted by you (such as a check) or a transaction you set up (such as a preauthorized transfer) is presented for payment in an amount that is more than the amount of money available in your account (i.e., your available balance), and we decide not to pay the item or transaction, you agree that we can charge you an NSF fee for returning the payment.

In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers or NSF fees:

Telephone us at 1-800-706-9991
